(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

I, Margaret A. Kivinski, am attorney of record in this matter for the applicants.

1. On June 2, 2004, an Office Action was issued in this matter by Examiner Chester T. Barry.

2. On October 4, 2004, I timely filed what I believed to be a full and complete response, addressing all rejections and including amendments to the claims and remarks explaining how the cited prior art was avoided. (Exhibit A)

3. The Examiner first responded on December 27, 2004 stating only that the response of October 4, 2004 was non-compliant because in the Listing of Claims, claim 79 of the application was listed as "previously added" instead of "previously presented," but that the amendment appeared to be a bona fide attempt to be a reply, giving applicant one month to re-submit the corrected section.

4. I promptly filed a Response with a corrected Listing of Claims on January 4, 2005.

5. On March 15, 2005 the Examiner issued a notice to Applicant that the response originally filed on October 4, 2004 was now considered not fully responsive, causing the application to go abandoned.

6. I promptly prepared and filed the accompanying petition to revive the abandoned application and attached supplemental response to the October 4, 2004 Office Action.

7. Because I had reason to believe I timely and satisfactorily responded to the October 4, 2004 Office Action, and did not learn the response was deemed not fully responsive (a determination with which the Applicant does not agree) until after the six month statutory period for reply, I had no opportunity to respond earlier and in a manner that would have prevented the application from going abandoned.
